Here’s an example of an analytical essay introduction:

Introduction Example:

In The Great Gatsby, F. Scott Fitzgerald delves into the complexities of the American Dream through the life of Jay Gatsby, a man whose extravagant lifestyle masks a profound emptiness. The novel opens with Nick Carraway's reflective narrative, establishing a tone of disillusionment as he recounts his experiences in the opulent world of 1920s New York. Gatsby's pursuit of wealth and status, driven by his longing for Daisy Buchanan, ultimately reveals the moral decay hidden beneath the surface of prosperity. Through rich symbolism and intricate character development, Fitzgerald critiques the illusion of the American Dream, illustrating how it leads to inevitable tragedy and disillusionment.

myperfectpaper.net