

Argumentative Essay Outline AP Lang:

- Introduction: Establish background information and context on the issue being discussed.
- Body Paragraph 1: Introduce the strongest argument in support of your position. Explain why it is a valid point, using evidence to back it up.
- Body Paragraph 2: Present a counterargument to one of your primary points, citing proof or examples that illustrate how it weakens your case.
- Body Paragraph 3: Address any other objections you anticipate readers may have against your position, providing evidence that disproves their claim.
- Conclusion: Summarize all of the main points and provide an overall assessment of your argument from an impartial perspective, if necessary.
