

Vaccine Argumentative Essay Outline

I. Introduction

A. Background Information on Vaccines

1. Definition of a vaccine
2. Overview of benefits of vaccination
3. History of vaccine usage worldwide

B. Thesis Statement

II. Body

A. Debate Over Vaccines

1. Argument for Vaccines
 - a. Positive Effect on Population Health
 - b. Cost-Savings from Preventable Diseases

2. Argument Against Vaccines

- a. Risk of Adverse Events
 - b. Religious and Philosophical Objections

B. Reasons for Mandatory Vaccination Laws

1. Government's Role in Promoting Public Health
2. Protection from Outbreaks of Vaccine-Preventable Diseases

C. Potential Solutions to Controversial Issues Surrounding Vaccines

1. Increasing Education Programs on the Benefits and Risks of Vaccination
2. Greater Availability of Exemptions for Religious or Philosophical Reasons

III. Conclusion

A. Summary of Arguments for and Against Vaccines

B. Implications of Mandatory Vaccination Laws

C. Recommendation for Balancing Public Health with Individual Rights

D. Review of Thesis Statement

IV. Works Cited

A. Sources

B. Formatting Guidelines Followed (MLA, APA, Chicago, etc.)