

Essay Outline for Argumentative Essay

1. Introductory Paragraph - introduce the topic of the essay and provide an overview of your argument

2. Main Point 1 - discuss one point in detail that supports your argument

3. Main Point 2 - discuss a second point in detail that supports your argument

4. Main Point 3 - discuss a third point in detail that supports your argument

5. Counterargument - address any opposing arguments to yours and explain why they are wrong or misguided

6. Concluding Paragraph – restate the main points of your essay, summarize how they support your thesis statement, and leave readers with something to think about after reading it

7. Works Cited - include any sources that were referenced in the essay, following the appropriate citation format.